The main result of the project was the contribution to the definition of the Natura 2000 area proposed by the Veneto region, and the contribution of the fishing sector to the definition of the limitations and compensation necessary to continue fishing in the area.

The project will be capitalized in a second Tarta-Tur project which sees the involvement of the Emilia Romagna and Friuli Venezia Giulia regions which will aim to make the areas, limitations and fishing opportunities in the Natura 2000 areas homogeneous.
