

Location-Based System, abbreviated as LBS, refers to the proprietary monitoring system in place at the MNO which might be already using the radio parameters (TA, received strength and others) to narrow down the position of the mobile device. Generally speaking, if LBS data are available, they should be definitely reported in addition to (not in replacement of) Cell ID and TA.

Related concepts

- Mobile Network Operator MNO
- Cell Identifier Cell ID
- Tracking Area \(TA\)