Discover the winners of the international online song contest Eurofishio to sing your heart out to original love songs about fish and rivers! This contest is part of World Fish Migration Day, a global event about raising awareness for migratory fish and free flowing rivers. This contest is inspired by Eurovision.

Their theme "Open Up" inspired us to use this momentum for river restoration and fish migration. Showing how your #LoveFlows for rivers and fishes helps us in our goal of raising awareness for fishes and rivers. Submit your video of an original (or remixed) love song about fish and rivers to our contest and win the Happy Fish Cup and a possibility to share your song with millions of river and fish lovers around the world!
