On 16 June 2021 14:00-17:00 CEST, the EMODnet Secretariat will organise an online workshop on the European Atlas of the Seas in the framework of the EMODnet Open Conference [1].

The interactive workshop will provide participants with the opportunity to learn about the many different aspects of the Atlas, from the story behind map layers to how the Atlas can be used in education and ocean literacy.

The workshop is open to everyone and is free to attend. Whether you are just discovering the European Atlas of the Seas or you are already a user looking for further information, join us on 16 June!

Consult the programme below for more information and meet the speakers and panelists in the pre-workshop presentation [2].
